Announcement!

All the weather prophets are predicting an early Fall and we announce that we are ready with our usual full lines of Dress Goods, Silks, Ready-to-wear garments and Ladies' Furnishings. We invite everybody to come and see what we have new.

New Department.

In addition to other already successful lines of ladies' goods, we will shortly open the largest and finest assortment of

Ever shown in this part of Kentucky. While we will have hats of every price, we are after the finest trade and have the exclusive sale for this section of two of the most celebrated lines of Trimmed and Walking Hats in this country. These houses cater to the most exclusive city trade and have never before had an agency here. We will not employ a milliner, but will have only Pattern Trimmed Hats and Ready-to-wear Walking Hats. All will be sold at our

We will next week announce the day of our opening, when we will have on exhibition over 300 hats, and hope you will make arrangements to be present.

Tailor Suits.

We have this season exceeded any of our previous efforts in this department. We will show a line of 250 Suits, embracing about 75 styles and colors ranging in price from $12.50 to $35. In prices we believe you will find our suits from $2.50 to $10 less than elsewhere and in style and tailoring unsurpassed at any price.

Merchants who do not carry these suits, can send us their special orders, which will be filled for less price than any city house.

Dress Goods!

We call special attention to our line of plain Venetians and Broadcloths, which we have in a full range of colors from 50c to $3 per yard. We also show the popular Zibellines, Poca Cloths and Pebble Cheviots in all colors; Plain Back Goods and fine all wool Cassimeres for short skirts in 15 styles from $1.25 to $2 per yard.

FURS.

Early buyers get the pick. We have Boas, Chester Scarfs, Storm Collars and Victorines from $2.50 to $35.

DRESSING SACQUES.

In 10 styles in Red, Pink, Blue, Gray and Heliotrope from 75c to $3.50.

The present craze is for Shirt Waists and Sacques. We have the genuine, imported direct from France in 32 styles in addition to solid colors. Our styles are our own.

REPUBLICAN INCONSISTENCY.

Just on the threshold of another presidential campaign, it will be pointed out interesting to exhumate some of the dusty "principles" of the grand old party, under whose auspices through the influence of the sainted Abraham Lincoln the Chronicle was founded in 1861, within a month after Lincoln's arrival in Washington. It remains to be tested whether intelligent citizens who have formed convictions (as McKinley declared his views to be) can follow calmly and without a blush of shame this record of inconsistency, viz:

The republican party is in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money.—From Chicago Republican National Platform.

1890.

I have always been in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of the silver product of the United States, and have so voted on at least two occasions during the time I have been in public life. With me political and economic questions are a conviction.—From Wm. McKinley's Letter to E. S. Perkins.

1892.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bimetalism, and the republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money.—From Minneapolis Republican National Platform.

1896.

We are opposed to the free coinage of silver except by international agreement with the leading commercial nations of the world, which we pledge ourselves to promote.—From St. Louis Republican National Platform.

1900.

We renew our allegiance to the principle of the GOLD STANDARD and declare our confidence in the wisdom of the legislation by which a gold basis has been secured. We declare our steadfast opposition to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.—Philadelphia Republican National Platform.—Washington Chronicle.

FALL FESTIVAL.

One hundred thousand dollars have been set aside for the festivities of the Cincinnati Fall Festival. An Industrial Exposition will be the leading feature. All the famous permanent exposition buildings will be occupied. They cover over 100,000 square feet of space, and will be filled with new, novel, instructive and interesting exhibits. Cincinnati originated Industrial Expositions in the United States, and the present one promises to be more attractive and novel than ever before.

$1,000 IN GOLD.

Will be given for the best float in the great Trades and Manufacturers' Parade. A gorgeous Flower Parade, the greatest spectacle ever witnessed in Cincinnati, will be a feature of the festival. The Plaza will cover both sides of the canal for many thousand feet, filled with novel entertainments from all parts of the world—a new and modern midway playground.

IN THE GREAT SPRINGER MUSIC HALL. One of the largest and most famous auditoriums in America, spectacular allegories will be given with grand cast and gorgeous scenery. New costumes and inspiring music.

The opening of the festival will be heralded by booming of cannon, ringing of bells, and the welcoming ceremonies in honor of the Harvest Queen, who a royal barge will be met on its way down the Ohio, and who will be escorted in great state to a grand reception at Springer Hall. Novel and elaborate fireworks displays will be made from moving boats.

The Zoological Island had other summer resorts will have special programs. A day will be set apart for the trades Unions of the city and a one-day devoted to a monster Athletic contest.

Quickly sold a fly lover's neighborhood. In these sections, from San Francisco will be reached via Queen. These routes and other special excursions, and upon which can be a variety of portions of the year program of the value and amusement, and place.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED. Mr. J. B. H. is a prominent citizen of Danville, and has not a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death, in telling of it he says: "I was taken with a violent fever, that ran in pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't breathe up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption. When I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery, I bought a bottle. I continued to use it, and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Regular size of one and $1. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

The work of burning bodies at Galveston is still going on, they being hurried to the fires as soon as possible after being taken from the water. Gen. McKibben gives an estimate of 10,000 lost in Galveston alone. All up and down the coast there was loss of life.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

A mob of three, three Negroes, were taken from the jail and quietly lynched there.

LANCASTER.

Ward's flouring mill has shut down on account of the scarcity of water.

George M. Overman, representing a Louisville firm, has opened a piano and organ store in E. W. Harris' room on the public square, with good prospects for business.

Miss Marietta Crow has returned to Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller and Mrs. M. D. Hughes went to Louisville Sunday on a pleasure trip and to visit relatives.

Hon. R. Frank Peake and A. E. Willson are both billed to speak here next Monday, and there is a strong probability of a joint debate. If it does occur the democrats will bet heavily on Peake.

Marshal Pierce arrested a colored boy for stealing $5 from Ed Gaines' cash drawer. An altercation between Ed Minor and Allen Beasley resulted in a fine of one cent against Mr. Minor, as he struck several blows.

G. S. Gaines has traded his store-room, valued at $4,650, to James A. Yeager for a livery stable in Danville valued at $5,650, the difference to be paid by Mr. Gaines. It is reported that Mr. Yeager will move to this city and Mr. Gaines will move to Danville.

It is suggested that the prospective weddings on "Lover's Lane," all come off at once so as to enable Clerk Duncan to buy a new hat, and then the same ceremony will do for all, thus saving money for the happy couples to start on the journey of double blessedness.

No company has appeared at the opera house which gave more perfect satisfaction than did the Herald Square Opera Company. All the people were delighted with both performance. Although the receipts were $150 for two nights, the troupe lost money as their expenses are $80 per day.

Democratic camp fires will be built in every precinct in this county. A club of 250 names was organized at the court-house on Saturday evening. A. D. Ford was elected president; T. B. Robinson, vice president, and R. L. Davidson, secretary. The boys are all in good trim for the campaign, and they expect to place the county in democratic ranks.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. John F. Adams died Sunday night, at the age of 37 years. Funeral services will be held at the Buckeye church to-day, Monday, at 3 o'clock P. M., after which the remains will be buried in the family burying ground. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church and she had many friends on account of her excellent traits of character. She was formerly Miss Lizzie Burton, being a sister of Mr. Wm. Burton, of this city.

The most savage man on the Kentucky press is Editor James M. Allen, of the Cincinnati Democrat. Hear his threat: Prof. Yerkes attacked Editor Will Remington in the latter's office at Paris, Saturday. Again we warn the belligerent public that it is dangerous to attack a newspaper man in his own den. The first son of a gun that jumps on us will find himself shot full of holes with the shooting stick and stabbed to death with the bodkin, besides being beaten with the mallet and run through the cylinder press.

A preacher at Fort Scott, Kas., delivered a brief but beautiful funeral sermon the other day. Here it is:

"A word to you all. Post mortem praises are in the air. People kiss their dead who never stop to kiss their living. They hover over an open casket in hysterical sobs, but fail to throw their arms around their loved ones who are fighting the stern battles of life. A word of cheer to the struggling soul in life is worth more than all the roses of christendom piling high over casket covers."

Chamberlain's Pain Balm applied to a cut, bruise, burn, scald or like injury will instantly allay the pain and will heal the parts in less time than any other treatment. Unless the injury is very severe it will not leave a scar. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism, sprains, swellings and lameness. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

CARD OF THANKS.—We desire to express our sincerest thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their kind and thoughtful attentions, during the illness and death of our loved one. We also thank Dr. Steele Bailey for his untiring services. May God richly bless each and every one of them. Mrs. S. L. Lewis and family.

At Dixon, Wash. Herron rode up to the residence of Hurley Nail, and told Nail that he had shot Robert Gibson five times, and that the wounded man could be found in a field near town. Gibson died shortly after a physician arrived. Herron is at large.

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS. Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucken's Arnetts cures them; also Old Eczema and Fever Sore, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Chapped Hands, Chills, Itch, Pile cure on earth. Drives out Erysipelas and Acne. Only 25 cts. a box. Guaranteed. Sold by Penny, Druggist.

Two thieves were caught while at Danville yesterday for $70.

BRODHEAD.

Find two better hotels in one town than the Albright and Frith at Brodhead and draw on the writer for a week's board.

"A lot of us want the Lexington Daily Democrat," said Harve Dunn. "We know it will be true blue and that's what the democrats here want," he added.

Mrs. J. Thomas Cherry leaves this week for a protracted visit to relatives in Fayette and Boone counties. Her husband will make a trip to the cities for goods while she is away.

James M. Sautley, who is studying telegraphy here, is getting the business down fine and can send and receive about as fast as the rest of them. He will get an office before long.

The fair company has not yet declared a dividend, but there is said to be enough money in the treasury to declare one of 30 to 40 per cent. Considerable of the money will go to improving the grounds.

Mrs. Dr. I. S. Burdett says the INTERIOR JOURNAL failed to mention the fact that she took the premiums for silk quilts and embroidery at the fair. Her work was pronounced by good judges to be very fine.

The normal democratic majority of Brodhead precinct is 35, but last year it was reduced to 27. The democrats are counting on carrying the precinct 50 this year, Dr. John M. Williams to the contrary notwithstanding.

The merchants of Brodhead are Frith & Dunn, J. Thomas Cherry, R. S. Watson, J. F. Watson, J. H. Hinton, Dr. J. M. Clark, Granville Owens and R. W. Wallin. Their stores are evidences of prosperity and a clever lot of merchants never sold goods.

The L. & N. has the cleverest kind of officials here. They are Agent Joe Farmer, Night Agent W. B. Pettus and Assistant Agent J. R. Cass. Some of them are pretty warm republicans, but they are gentlemen to the core and their politics can be overlooked.

E. B. Protheroe, formerly of this place, dropped dead at Higginsport, O., of heart disease. Besides a wife, four sons, including Mr. E. E. Protheroe, who lived here for years, survive. Mr. Protheroe was a good man and a fine miller. He ran J. H. Baughman & Co's mill at nights for several months a year or so ago.

The school here conducted by Prof. R. L. Brown and Miss Helen Thurmond is progressing nicely and the army of children under their care are learning rapidly. This is the second year Miss Thurmond has taught here and she is as popular with the pupils as she is with parents.

Charles Keisling, who had both feet cut off in a railroad wreck at Bloomfield a year ago, is running a restaurant at Brodhead and furnishing L. & N. men with lunches. He has cork feet, but with the aid of a crutch and cane gets around almost as well as the more fortunate of us. He furnishes some dave as many as 100 lunches.

Mr. Parker and his crew of bed spring men are headquartered at the Frith Hotel here and are furnishing the good people of this section with a new and splendid spring, which they manufacture at Brodhead. He and three of his assistants are about as warm democrats as one meets in a month of Sundays.

The democratic club, J. Harvey Dunn, president, and Granville Owens, secretary, now has 116 members. This is good considering the fact that the club is only two weeks old and there are only about 190 democrats in the Brodhead precinct. At the meeting Saturday night, Messrs. Tharpe, Watson, Tyree and Clements made roasting speeches. The next meeting will be held Saturday night week, when one or more speakers from a distance will address the club.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

A GREAT FAVORITE. The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opiates or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

A dispatch from Williamsburg says: Fugitive John Powers, who has been practicing law at Harlan while surrounded by a bodyguard costing him $10 a day, has decided to go to Valparaiso, Ind., to study law. His reasons for doing this are two-fold. He desires to perfect his knowledge of law and secure the protection guaranteed by Gov. Mount.

BISMARK'S IRON NERVE. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop your power of brain and body. Only 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Somerset has organized a big democratic club with J. H. Waddle president, J. M. Owens, secretary, and Dr. J. M. Owens treasurer.

The first accounts almost invariably exaggerate the effects of great disasters like the one at Galveston, but this case has proven an exception to the rule. It has developed that the number of lives lost will be far greater than first reported and the property loss is appalling. In fact it is impossible to estimate the actual and consequential property loss that will ensue to the city of the 147 export harbors in the United States it ranked fifth in importance. It was the largest cotton exporting point in the country, and will hardly recuperate in time to handle the new crops, which is liable to cause complications, as it is probable that its chief rival, Port Arthur, is too badly crippled to handle the crops. This will throw the bulk of this business to New Orleans, which of course will tax its facilities to the utmost, as the large increase was unexpected. Galveston was also a great exporting point for grain. Its elevators had a capacity of 2,750,000 bushels and could handle 70,000,000 bushels during the season. The lumber interest was almost as important as those of cotton and grain. The island on which Galveston is situated and which bears the same name is 30 miles long, three wide, generally level with an elevation of three to five feet above the water. It was the headquarters of the pirate Lafitte from 1817 to 1821. The city was incorporated in 1838 and by the recent census was shown to have a population of 33,500. It had a number of manufacturing interests, schools, churches, banks, and newspapers, and is the seat of a Roman Catholic Bishopric. It was seized by the Union forces Oct. 8, 1862, but regained by the Confederates Jan. 1, 1863. It has been a remarkably healthy place, having been free from epidemic of every kind since 1857. With the exception of a $2,000,000 fire in 1883, it has had uninterrupted prosperity since the close of the civil war.

The editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL is overwhelmed with gratitude over the favorable comment of the State press on his acceptance of the position of editor-in-chief of the Lexington Morning Democrat and takes this method of returning his heartfelt thanks. We hope to be able to fulfill their predictions, though we are fully aware of our lack of capacity for the magnitude of the undertaking of establishing a daily newspaper, even with the strong backing that we will have.

An effort is being made in the Legislature to supplant the square under the election device with a circle. This would be unfortunate for the republicans, for the bulk of their voters, being unable to read, are compelled to depend on the device to see how to vote, and they would more than likely mistake the circle for a picture of a quarter as the price of votes, which would be so disappointing, they would stamp under the rooster for spite.

This is a great country in every particular. We have more territory, the biggest cities, the greatest seas, the largest rivers, the highest mountains of any nation on earth, but unfortunately our disasters, of which Galveston was an example, are nearly always as great in proportion. It is very gratifying, though, that the spirit of benevolence is always sufficiently great to relieve the effect of the disasters as far as it may be done.

Such disasters as the one which has overtaken Galveston, develop the best and worst sides of human nature. While the humanity of the civilized world has been touched, and contributions are pouring in from all quarters to relieve the living, those in charge in the ground have been compelled to fill a number of fiends in human shape to prevent their robbing the dead.

There is no word in the Chinese language that conveys an intimation of what we term public opinion, nor is there a synonym for patriotism.—Courier Journal. The object of words is to convey ideas, and as the Chinese are devoid of ideas on the subjects named, they have no need of the words.

"Go Higher" is the title of an editorial in which the Commercial Tribune entreats the voters to support the republican ticket. "Go lower" would be more appropriate.

Spain is to begin the 24 o'clock day Jan. 1. It is to be hoped that the additional hours will be added that belated nation to catch up with the recession.

A shirt waist manufacturer at New York has failed already. The fad was a short-lived one of any of the silly fads that have flourished for a season.

At Elizabethtown Saturday, Collector Yerkes dodged the question again as to whether he will pardon the assassin convicts and suspects by saying: "I repeat that any man who would say that he would pardon a man in advance of his election is not worthy of the suffrage of honest men, and if you believe I would do such a thing, I beg you to vote against me." Too thin, Mr. Yerkes, you have read the testimony in the Powers case. Will you pardon him or not? Don't waltz around on your dignity so much, but answer categorically. As for you pledged to pardon? Asking Gov. Beckham what he will do is worse than the Yankee, who would answer a question by asking another. Yes or no, Mr. Yerkes!

In one of his oratorical flights in Indiana, where he is the guest of a perjured governor, Fugitive Taylor, with fire in his eye, said as he smote his manly breast: "If I had the history behind me, starting me in the face," etc. With an ordinary man this would seem the superlative of nonsense, but not so with Taylor. He is a regular Janus and history behind him could stare him in the face with little effort. A deacon in the church, he put on a sanctimonious face in front, while the one in the rear chuckled over the way he was going to have Goebel removed so that no one would suspect him of complicity in the murder. Dr. Jekel and Mr. Hyde never had a stronger counterpart.

In delving among the official papers at Frankfort, Senator George T. Parrish came across this paragraph in Gov. Bradley's message to the Legislature in 1898: "If the executive should determine to disperse the General Assembly can any sane man doubt that anarchy and revolution would be the natural and unavoidable sequence?" The question was so fully answered last winter at Frankfort as to make comment unnecessary.

Gov. PINGREE, of Michigan, says he will hold his nose, vote for McKinley and hope for the best. By holding his nose he may avoid the unpleasant odor that attaches to the Mark Hanna administration, but hoping against hope is a rather silly performance. The best plan would be to hit him and the trusts a lick between the eyes by voting for Bryan, who represents the great common people in the fight on trusts and combines.

Those who have formed an opinion of the personal appearance of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham by the newspaper cuts of him would be agreeably surprised to see him as he is. He is not the long face, sanctimonious looking son-of-a-bitch that the papers make him, but a handsome, intelligent, courteous and pleasant gentleman, whom the people will make no mistake to re-elect as their chief executive.

RICHARD CROKER, the head of the Tammany organization, contends in a lengthy article that a boss in politics is as necessary as the boss of any other business. Judge T. Z. Morrow, of Somerset, laid that principle down in an elaborate and excellent speech a number of years ago.

Why should the assassination papers make light of the attempt on John S. Rhea's life, unless they glory in that despicable work? All law abiding, law loving citizens deplore any attempt at violence and those who do not are enemies to the State.

PATTERSON'S creek in Whitley county will celebrate Caleb Powers' birthday next Saturday by a big republican rally. We suppose they will rejoice over the fact that he was given a life sentence instead of having his neck broken.

SIXTEEN men were overpowered by one boy at Richmond, Va., while under the influence of hypnotism. As the republicans have so far failed in every other way to accomplish anything with 16 to 1, they had better try hypnotism.

The assassination organs have renewed their old howls because the Jas. Howard jury is composed of democrats. They should remember that the republicans on the Powers jury were more inclined to hang him than the jury.

THE Philippine commission is to expend two millions of dollars in making roads and bridges. With these improved means for locomotion our troops may yet catch Aguinaldo.

Isn't it up to Judge Tinsley now to tell what he was congratulating Howard on? Surely so good a man as he would not think the role of assassin put a feather in anybody's cap.

THERE is no longer any doubt about the republicans carrying the 11th district. They have begun to flood it with money and money talks.

THOSE dinner pails were evidently not filled with the right kind of food as strikes are springing up all over the country.

MAINE didn't go hell bent as usual, but she went all the same republican.

POLITICAL.

Gova, Beckham and McCrery spoke to 8,000 people at Mayfield yesterday. It is said that the republicans are preparing to flood the Eleventh district with money. Bryan will make only one speech in Kentucky—at Louisville, Oct. 6. He does not think he is needed to carry the State for democracy.

The Louisville Brownies have thrown off the mask and have come out openly to work for Yerkes, Chairman "Roaring Bill" Sweeney in an address issued Saturday announces that headquarters will be opened at once and that the Brown men will begin an active campaign.

Ex-Senator Cannon, of Utah, who walked out of the republican National convention of 1896 with Senator Teller, has stayed out. He is for Bryan and Stevenson.

The action of the president and Congress on the Porto Rico tariff question is big enough issue by itself for a whole presidential campaign, and there is plenty else.

Gov. Beckham has appointed D. F. Logan and Capt. E. W. Lillard members of the board of commissioners of the Kentucky School for the Deaf.

John B. Stanchfield, the democratic nominee for governor of New York, like the present incumbent of that office, is a wearer of nose-glasses, but, unlike Teddy's, they do not distort his vision.

The democratic committee of the 7th appellate district met at Mt. Sterling Saturday and issued a call for a convention at Winchester Sept. 29 to nominate a candidate for appellate judge. County conventions will be held the 24th.

At the democratic conference at Indianapolis Thursday, it was announced that the National committee regarded Indiana and Kentucky as the battle ground of the campaign, and that both States would be thoroughly canvassed by able speakers.

A republican rally will be held on Patterson's Creek in Whitley county, next Saturday to celebrate the birthday of Caleb Powers, who is in under conviction for conspiring to procure the assassination of Gov. Goebel. Patterson's Creek is the birthplace of Powers.

Cot. Bill Thorne says: "I don't know who killed Goebel, but if I was on a jury I would hang any man who had a pardon in his pocket, or tried to leave the State in disguise." The color is right. The possession of such a pardon is prima facie evidence of guilt, as light certainly is.

Gov. Beckham and Congressman Wheeler spoke at Bowling Green Friday night to what was probably the largest political gathering in the history of the Third district. The crowd was estimated at from 8,000 to 9,000 people, and the speakers were cheered with an enthusiasm that could hardly have been more pronounced.

It has been decided to amend the election law as to require that the voter stamp in a circle one inch in diameter under the emblem instead of in a square around the device. The object of the change is to avoid the confusion as to the square about the emblem, and the square opposite the name of the candidate at the head of each ticket.

About 1,000 of the noisiest men ever gathered together at London, lined up in the court-house yard Saturday, each whooping and yelling for his candidate. After an all-day whoop and hurrah it was finally agreed to divide the 18 votes of Laurel county among her three candidates for circuit judge. W. N. Brown received seven votes, H. C. Eversole seven and W. R. Ramsey four.

Mr. Yerkes is having good sized audiences at all his appointments. A great many democrats are turning out to hear him. So far he speaks only at towns that are reached by Pullman trains, and where there are hotels that are free from bed bugs and furnish a clean napkin with each course. Compared with Mr. Taylor, he is a much more-mannered man and he eats his pie without a knife, using only his fork. He never picks his teeth at the table, nor puts his hand on his hip pocket to illustrate civil liberty. People are very much pleased with his shape—though he does not travel on it, but in a Pullman. The general consensus among the plain people is that Yerkes is a very nice man, and among the editors, it is not safe to say less for he has a big brother at Paris who enforces civil liberty with his fists.—Somerset Journal.

JIM HOWARD'S TRIAL.

In his statement of the case against James Howard for assassinating Goebel, Attorney Ben Williams said that the prosecution would show that W. S. Taylor determined to remove Goebel by violence, that the deed was to have been committed Jan. 29, but was postponed on account of the failure of Howard to arrive, that he said on his way to Frankfort, where he went without any business whatever, that "they need a good shot down there and I am going there;" that at London he conferred with the circuit judge of the district and the county attorney of Laurel county, and from bits of his conversation dropped there we will show that these men afterward said that Goebel would be killed and that Taylor had a pardon written out for the man who would do it. We will show by members of the household, said Judge Williams, what the mission of the accused man was. The murder of Goebel was fashioned after a crime committed in the home county of this defendant and at which he was present. The case I refer to is that of Tom Baker, like Goebel, shot from behind a window curtain from the house of Bev White. Baker had been accused of the murder of Will White, a brother of that noted family. Howard was in the executive building when the shot was fired and escaped from that building by the rear way, leaping over a fence to get to the street, where he began to establish his alibi. We will show you that the change in his appearance by the removal of his mustache was done for the purpose of changing his general appearance to escape the consequence of this crime. Howard staid in Frankfort till Gov. Goebel died and then fled away to London, where he was saluted by a friend with, "Jim, I am glad to see you and want to congratulate you on what you did at Frankfort." Judge Williams closed with the declaration that the defendant, if proven guilty, should receive the death penalty. All but one the jurors are democrats and good men.

Pat McDonald testified that a few minutes before the shooting, he saw Berry Howard, W. H. Culton and C. W. Lester in close conversation in front of the legislative building, but he could not say what they were talking about his testimony was unimportant.

The testimony Saturday was introduced tending to show that the defendant, as a reward for killing Goebel, expected a pardon from Taylor for the murder of old man Baker. It was shown, too, that Judge Tinsley, after the assassination, congratulated Howard on the work he had done. Lieut. Ricketts repeated the story of Youtsey placing guards in the executive building before the assassination to aid the murderer's escape.

John L. Jones, of Knox, who was a soldier in Capt. Noaks' company and is a relative by marriage to Howard, testified as follows: Howard slipped me on the back on coming up and when I remarked that I understood that Goebel wasn't hurt he remarked, he is, he was shot by a damned dead shot. I met him again after the death of Goebel and he said to me, didn't I tell you that he was shot by a dead shot; he said that whenever he shot he shot to kill. In answer to Attorney Owens' question, "Why did you take so long to get up your courage to make this statement," Jones said, "I did not want to give such testimony against Howard."

James W. Stubbfield, of Clay, testified that Howard said to him, "Whenever I look over the sights of my gun, I always get meat or money one, and in this case I have gotten both. We have had hell at Frankfort and have cleaned up the platter."

NEWS NOTES.

The city council of Lawrenceburg sent $50 to the sufferers at Galveston. LaCrosse reports the first frost of the season yesterday.

William Hueltel shot and killed Jas. Jenkins at Lexington over a card game. Rear Admiral Montgomery Seward died of apoplexy at his summer home, Westerville, N. Y.

The middle-of-the-road populists of the Third district nominated H. E. Glenn for Congress. New York city has contributed $134,394 to the Galveston sufferers. Chicago has raised over $60,000.

At Newhope, Tenn., Paul Baker stabbed his cousin, John Wheeler, to death in a fight, which was the result of a quarrel over a woman.

W. H. Parker, colored, of Montgomery, Ala., is attempting to establish near Versailles, this State, an industrial for colored boys and girls.

Paul Kruger has fled to the Portuguese territory and his action is regarded as indicative of an early end of the hostilities in South Africa.

At Mansfield, O., Ephraim Bassinger, an elder of the Dowle church with two of his followers, was escorted to a train by a mob and hustled out of the city.

Charles Winn, who shot three men at Dry Ridge Saturday night, was released at Williamstown on $1,000 bond. He claims that the men attacked him and that he shot in self-defense.

Peter Hartman, of Burket, Ind., was attacked, robbed and murdered by three highwaymen on Van Buren street, near State, in Chicago, in broad daylight, and his murderers escaped.

Order has been brought out of chaos at Galveston. Horse cars are running and the water service has been partially resumed. More troops have been ordered out to relieve the exhausted guards.

As a result of a runaway at Richmond, Mrs. Napoleon Terrill's skull was fractured and she may die. Her daughter, Cricket, suffered a broken ankle, and a niece, Lucy Norris, was bruised about the face.

The signal service officers say that they notified the Galvestonians in advance to prepare for the coming storm. It is a pity they didn't tell them what preparations to make so that they could have avoided the terrible disaster.

An official statement by Mayor Jones, of Galveston, places the number of dead as between 5,000 and 8,000. Ten thousand persons are homeless and destitute. Relief is being rushed to the afflicted city from all parts of the country.

The National executive board of the United Mine Workers ordered the anthracite miners to strike yesterday. Some idea of the magnitude of such a strike may be gained from the estimate that should it continue for two months the loss in wages will amount to $8,400,000, loss to railroads, $20,000,000, and loss to mine operators, $20,000,000. It is stated that the average wages of the men is less than $250 a year, being forced to mine 2,700 to 4,000 pounds for a ton and receiving no concessions from the operators at all.

The Cumberland Falls Co. made an assignment yesterday at Louisville. The hotel and a small amount of land are its only assets, valued at $6,000, which about equals the liabilities.

OUR LOSS !

IS YOUR GAIN.

We are actually selling goods in some of our departments for less than our most conservative buyers paid for them. Bargain hunters are taking advantage of it, are you one of them? Do you appreciate the purchasing power of a dollar? Do you know that your money will reach one-third further with us than with most any of our competitors? Don't doubt this assertion, but come and let us prove to you the truthfulness of it.

The trial of Walter Clem, for the murder of Eugene Owens, occupied the Boyle circuit court but a short time. The Commonwealth introduced only one witness, the widow of the dead man, who told how her brother had, without apparent provocation, shot down her husband in her presence. The defense had witnesses who claimed that Owens had threatened to kill Clem, and had repeatedly abused his sister in an inhuman manner, whipping her once with a buggy whip. The jury disagreed, six standing for acquittal. He was allowed bail in $1,500 which he gave.

Scoobee bought of Howard Bros. 250 barrels of corn at $1.25 in the field and will pay 35c per barrel for feeding same. T. C. Robinson bought of Sam K. Hodgkin 500 good Western ewes at $4.35.—Winchester Democrat.

DANVILLE COURT.—A fairly good crowd attended Danville court yesterday and there were about 150 cattle on the market. A bunch of plain yearling cattle sold at $20.25, some butcher cattle at 3 to 3½c and a small lot of yearlings at 3½c. Capt. English sold a bunch of ewes at $4.81, some old ewes at $2 and a first-class bunch at $6 to $6.10. Mule colts were in demand at $35 to $70; aged mules sold at $40 to $120. Horses were dull.

WHAT TRUSTS DO FOR FARMERS.

The democratic campaign committee has taken up the argument advanced by the republicans that the farmer is prospering under republican rule and turned it about to show that in reality he pays more for everything because of the trusts. Here are the points made by the democrats:

It requires 50 per cent. more wheat to buy a stove than it did in 1896.

It requires 20 bushels more corn to buy a wagon than in 1896.

It requires 700 per cent. more corn or wheat to buy a copper kettle than in 1896.

It requires twice as much corn to buy a coil of rope than in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more grain to buy a plow than in 1896.

It requires 75 per cent. more grain to buy a hoe, a rake or a shovel than in 1896.

A set of common wheels that cost $7 in 1896, now costs $12.

The price of cultivators and other farm implements has gone up proportionately.

Galvanized barbed wire costs from $4 to $4.50 per hundred more than it did in 1896.

It requires 40 per cent. more corn or cotton to buy a pound of sugar than in 1896.

You have to pay 40 per cent. more for glass than in 1896.

Freight rates have climbed back to the exorbitant figures of a few years ago.

The price of oil, coal, lumber, tools and hardware has gone up from 40 to 100 per cent.

And all these things have been done by trusts.

A trust robs you walking or sleeping, eating or drinking, working or resting, living or dying, and the cotton trust gets you in the end.

The Haberdasher is severe on the man's shirt waist. It says: "Advising Vulgarly of the abandonment of the coat is to give countenance to one of the worst of all bad American habits. To preserve the esthetic and the artistic in dress one must leave the units of our outer attire undisturbed. To separate them is to leave a man half dressed. The man in his shirt sleeves is always the common and vulgar man. You'll find his kind leaning against the public bars, expectorating in public conveyances and smoking in forbidden places. We may not discard the coat and preserve the rules of propriety and estheticism in dress. There can be no comparison between the dress of man and woman. A woman's shirt waist is merely a form of bodice, and it is an integral part of the outer dress of woman. A man's shirt is a distinctive garment and is not part of his overalls. Aside from these objections we have the more serious one of appearance. It cannot be 'comingly' carried out. There are not ten men in every thousand so built that they can go without suspenders. And unless the suspenders be banished there is no use in talking about abandoning the coat. In no decent society, decent company or properly conducted hotels or theaters would a man be permitted to appear without his coat. The coatless man must always be what he has always been, a common, vulgar, undisciplined being, who puts personal ideas of comfort above the ideals of seemingly conventional." "A common report is a common liar," says the proverb, and certainly a common impression is frequently a common mistake. A New York druggist said recently that according to his experience men use hair dyes to a much greater extent than women. The general belief assuredly is that the contrary is the case, and it is regarded as merely one of the evidences of woman's vanity. The druggist gives as the probable reason why men object so strongly to gray hair the pathetic fact that the man who is one of the employed and not of the employers is pushed aside for younger men as soon as signs of middle age appear. It seems extremely hard, extremely foolish, for certainly a man of 50, with average intelligence and education, is more valuable in every way than the man of 25.

Plagues of insects are raising hob in various parts of the country just now. Black fleas that defy all defensive effort are devastating Long Island. Merchantville, Pa., is vainly scratching after an insect equally malignant in its depravity. In some parts of northern Indiana and southern Michigan black crickets are making life a burden. Houses and stores at Kalamazoo swarm with the pests, and there seems to be no way of getting rid of them. They even clogged the typesetting machines in the Gazette office there. It has been piously decided by the Mennonites of Elkhart, Ind., that the cricket, visitation is a plague sent to punish for their wickedness the various communities afflicted, and that unless the warning is heeded there is worse yet to come.

Last spring some person or persons unknown stole from Mrs. Lewis P. Roe, of Bath, L. I., a number of preserving jars, says an eastern exchange. Mrs. Roe said nothing about it at the time, but a few days ago her husband posted a notice in front of his residence saying that as the preserving season was now at hand his wife wanted those jars returned immediately or he would sell on the guilty parties. Guilty consciences seem to be plentiful thereabouts, for next morning there were jars enough in the yard to fill a freight car—many times as many as had been stolen.

A Kaukauna (Wis.) man has, during the recent hot weather, demonstrated a new and, as is proved, successful method of roasting apples. He filled one of his large plate glass windows with about 15 bushels of fine, rosy-checked apples, piled up high against the glass. One day's exposure, says a local exchange, was enough to completely roast those lying next the glass, turning them as brown a color as though cooked in a stove oven.

It is told in a current item that a Lube (Mo.) lady was going to a party one evening and, womanlike, spent a good deal more time "getting on her things" than she had to spare. Fully titivated at last, she grabbed her hat and jabbed a batpin through it. The hatpin impaled a mouse, which uttered a pained and indignant squeak. Then the lady fainted and eventually had to give up the party.

The shirtwaist idea seems to have struck one St. Louis man hard. A resident of that place was lately arrested and fined because, according to the allegation of his wife, he gives her only five dollars of his earnings and spends the rest on women's clothes, which he puts on as soon as he comes home at night.

A financial authority reports that 111 of the national banks of the United States hold deposits of $5,000, 000 or more each—a record that has never been equaled by any other nation.

AN ABBREVIATED ROMANCE.

To gain sweet Mabel's hand and heart
The young lieutenant pressed his suit
By means of music's pleasing art.
But while he softly played the lute,
Sweet Mabel merely played the lute.
The grizzled captain came and told
How the little battle had been scolded.
Then made a sudden sortie bold.
And Mabel, in his arms enraptured,
Confessed the climax now was Capt.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. The filters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Penny's Drug Store.
